

Glory

John 8:50

Written/Performed by: Only Won

Produced by: Maximillian

Here we go round to the downtown movin' on to uptown breakin' nouns triple H-bound sound.
Screamin' to make a difference to be a light in this world.
showin' hope to all the little tiny boyz and the girlz.
Giving love, giving hugs to the thugs in their lugz
Fists be poppin' on their docks while they be throwin' down their drugs.
check out this pop! This Glory won't stop!
The only thing I inhale is Holy Hip Hop!
I give props to the Pops not the cops or the jocks.
Father Mockers better drop so listen now to how we rock.
This world's outa control & people have no goals
cept to make that paper paper, we have no morals in our souls.
In Hell people scream, "It's getting hot in here",
but you won't see any girls dancing in their underwear.
Or murdered babies, the meek, poor in spirit, righteous couples.
Inherit the kingdom of God, cuz with God there's no prenuptials Focus on what I'm sayin', here's my divine revelation. I'm a sinner but I'm saved, ready to live in His Nation!

(Hook)

best friend, D. I pray I see you up in heaven.
Hope you can see why I live and do the things I do.
Be true to me and you and the folks that we all knew.
Destined to protect the King of hearts while the devil be the Joker.
Huh...My life was meant to be more than mediocre.

(Hook)

GNOH GUM JEH SUN for all my trials & my tribulations, so I can relate to the hurts from people of all nations.

Took the bad & made it good, never thought that He could.

Never thought that He should and never thought that He would.

I can see clearly now, the PAIN is gone..... Where did we go all wrong? Why do we sing sad songs? Go through times of despair and cry all night long?

I met a guy the other night, his name was Alonzo sitting on a bench had no job and had no home

Asked me for some change so he can go to Micky D's

So I took him w/ me, and he couldn't believe.

Someone so free could have faith in the three. And want to share his belief with someone so lowly?

Naw man, you ain't low, you be the one that bless-ed me.

with your humble self and your faith in JC.

All I can say is that I hope that I gave God glory.

Check your life, keep it real, case & point, End of story.
